

Recommended Villas for Short Term Rent in Phuket

“Phuket is world class vacation destination, attracting millions of Thais and foreigners alike. In addition to the allure of its many pristine beaches, such visitors are drawn by the island's low living expences, cultural diversity, tropical weather, rich natural resources, numerous amenities and choice of locations.

There are over 30 white sandy beaches with clear waters waiting to be explored. We give priority to these recommended properties below, featuring the best views and locations, all of which are well worth considering either as a holiday home or short term investment.”

Villa Haleana

Malaiwana's upscale estate is exceptionally designed to truly enhance the residents' living experience, set above the hillside facing breathtaking sunset views of Naithon Beach. There are no water activities in the vicinity and the beach's national park status helps to conserve the lush natural environment. On this less-travelled Phuket coastline, the villa is situated on soft beaches, with sea view landscapes. Throughout your stay, you will have a great time with friends and family in tranquillity and special living experiences, making it one of the best holiday destinations ever.

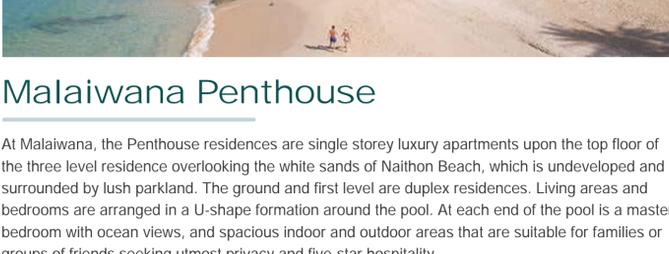

With traditional Thai designs of peak roofed pavilions, while interior spaces are swathed in marble and polished wood, the villa is arranged over two stories in a pair of pavilions. The five-star hospitality of courteous full time staff and a talented Thai chef offering special meals cater to each guest, making everyone feel right at home.
